Prince Karl of Roumania were probably tatally injured, while the Crown Prince was slightly hurt.

The despatch says that the Crown Prince was not an expert in handling an auto and only recently received his chauffeur's license.

At the Roumanian Legation here it was officially denied that the Prince and Princess were fatally hurt. The accident was trivial, it was stated, and none of the occupants of the car reseived more than slight injuries.

"BUFFALO" AND "PAWNEE" BILLS FIGHT THE "MOVIES"

Cody and Lillie Refuse to Pose in "Wild West" Films and Sue for $25,000.

Col. William F. Cody ("Buffalo Bill") and Gordon W. Lillie ("Pawnee Bill") are having trouble with the "movies." They are afraid films depicting them in ized, which will make the contract with wild west scenes will deprive them of future profits from the moving picture business, and began a sult in the Supreme Court to-day for $25,000 damages and an injunction against Patrick Powe ers and Pliny P. Craft. The complaint relates that on June 4.

1910, a contract was made with Col. Cody and Lillie, whereby the defendants were to put on plays in moving picture form, deptoting episodes of the wild west, and Col.
